Letter from President of CAFA Scholarship Foundation

Dear CAFA members and friends:

I am writing on behalf of the CAFA Scholarship Foundation Board to ask for your generous help. Please give yourself and us a few minutes to read on, because your response will help CAFA faculty members and worthy students.

Each year CAFA www.cafasc.org awards five college student scholarships totaling $2500, which comes from donations by CAFA members and friends. It is a hand-to-mouth operation.

In 1995 CAFA Scholarship Foundation [CAFASF] was founded. It aims to establish an endowment large enough to generate interests to fund not only student scholarships but also faculty development grants annually. So far the total endowment is $50,000. Last year CAFA awarded 3 faculty development grants and 5 student scholarships. At this rate, the CAFASF endowment will be spent in a short time without your additional contribution.

CAFASF urgently needs you help. You can sustain this worthy effort by

1) donating directly to the CAFASF endowment,
2) designating CAFASF as a beneficiary in your estate planning, for example, in a charitable remainder trust. Please contact me, or any board members for more details. You can establish a scholarship/grant in honor of your family members, or in memory of some loved ones.
CAFASF is a non-profit organization, and its board members are all volunteers. Your donations are tax deductible, and TOTALLY applied towards scholarships and grants. Your participation matters greatly, because, to retain CAFASF as a tax-exempted organization, we must have wider contributions beyond the Board. Your donation will indicate to the IRS our broad grass root support base.

We thank you in advance for your interests, and your enthusiastic support.

Sincerely yours,

Sun-yiu Fung
President, CAFASF

Please send your contributions to
